The Southwest

The American Southwest contains more than its fair share of natural wonders: Grand Canyon, Arches National Park, Bryce Canyon and Carlsbad Caverns National Park, are only a few of the most famous natural attractions.

The region is home to a wonderful and vibrant mix of Anglo, Latino, Hispanic, and American Indian traditions making it one of the more diverse, interesting, and picturesque corners of America with regards to history, landscape and culture.

From glamorous spas and golf resorts, to spending the day in the outdoors exploring all the natural wonders.

Don't miss ancient sites, eroded badlands and volcanic remains in the Land of Enchantment, and cactus-filled Sonoran Desert to the Mogollon Rim, the Colorado River as well as the great places along the famous 'ROUTE 66'!

California

California, stretches from the Mexican border along the Pacific Ocean for nearly 900 miles. From towering redwood forests in foggy Northern California to perfectly sun-kissed surf beaches in Southern California, this Golden State along the Pacific Ocean.

Exciting Hollywood still makes most of the world's blockbuster movies, and private studio tours can easily be arranged. Excellent celebrity-chef dining experiences stretch from Malibu to Beverly Hills.

The wonder about hitting California's highways is that things get more dramatic with every winding mile you detour from the big cities – trees get bigger, picturesque towns cuter and beaches more idyllic. The National Parks of California are amazing – Yosemite, Sequoia, Redwoods. Joshua Tree are just a few that you can enjoy.

Visit the numerous vineyards in California's wine counties (it's not just Napa!), or perhaps take a few days and stay at Lake Tahoe, also with incredible snow skiing at Heavenly Valley!

The Midwest

Chicago, on Lake Michigan in Illinois, is the largest cities in in the Midwest. Famed for its bold architecture, it has a skyline bristling with skyscrapers such as the 1,451-ft. Willis Tower. The city is also renowned for its museums, historical sites and for the old days of prohibition and the 'true gangsters', like the infamous Al Capone.

With Indianapolis just 90 minutes away it makes for a good combination if your VIPs wish to attend the famed INDY 500 Race!

The Mississippi River begins in Minneapolis continuing all the way into the Gulf of Mexico, to New Orleans.

This is where the 'Heart of America's Farmlands' bring many Agricultural groups that flock here to visit for corporate visits and global conventions.

Pacific Northwest

Lush forest, a pristine coastline, awesome seafood, frothy microbrews and music with art galore. For the outdoor enthusiast there is certainly enough to keep you busy, in beautiful surroundings!

Known for its airline and computer product facilities, some of the largest and most well-known corporations call the Northwest home including Amazon, Starbucks, Lionsgate Studios, Boeing, Microsoft and Intel, just to name a few.

Enjoy delicious fresh seafood such as Dungeness crab, salmon, and oysters of several varieties, mussels, clams, and more which are nearly synonymous with the cuisine of the Pacific Northwest.

Hop aboard the high-speed ferry from Seattle to Victoria in British Columbia. Enjoy a scenic 2 to 3-hour cruise through Puget Sound as you travel between the USA and Canada.

Spend a day on Victoria Island with its quaint downtown and the famous Butchart Gardens, certainly something not to miss!
