The Midwest

Chicago, on Lake Michigan in Illinois, is the largest city in the Midwest. Famed for its bold architecture, it has a skyline bristling with skyscrapers such as the 1,451-ft. Willis Tower. The city is also renowned for its museums, historical sites and for the old days of prohibition and the 'true gangsters', like the infamous Al Capone.

With Indianapolis just 90 minutes away it makes for a good combination if your VIPs wish to attend the famed INDY 500 Race!

The Mississippi River begins in Minneapolis continuing all the way into the Gulf of Mexico, to New Orleans.

But that is not even half of it – the 'Heart of America's Farmlands' brings many Agricultural groups that flock here to visit for corporate visits and global conventions.

And let's not forget St. Louis, the city of Blues, Beer, and BBQ, along with headquarters to many global corporations, like BUDWEISER!

Texas

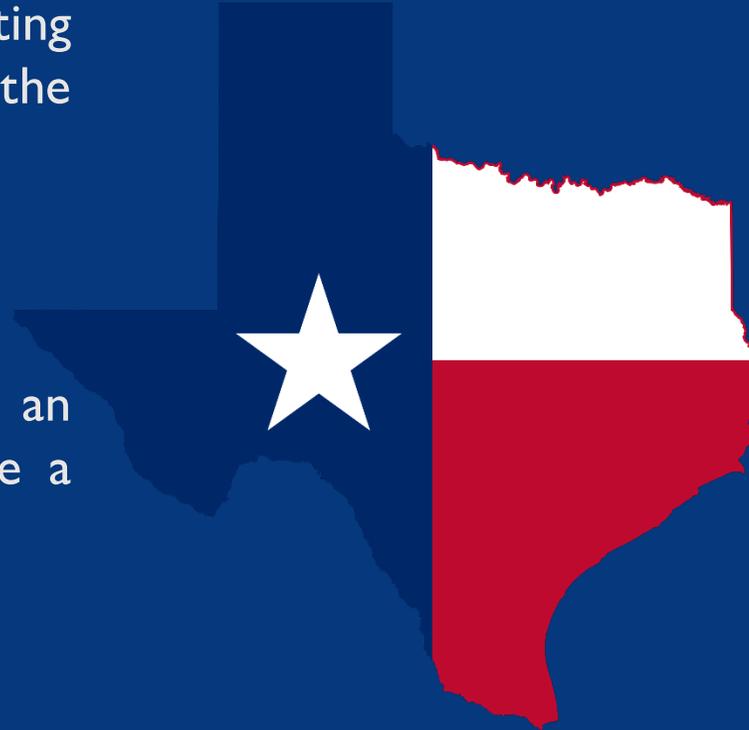

Texas is full of Southern Hospitality and great views. With its deserts, pine forests, and the Rio Grande, from cosmopolitan areas of Dallas & Houston to the smaller exciting cities of Ft. Worth, San Antonio, and the lively music-filled Austin.

Get your cowboy hats & boots on!

Whether your group wants to attend an exciting Texas rodeo or have us organize a private rodeo for your group—

Everything is possible!

Spend a day at a real Texas Ranch or floating down the Guadalupe River. Visit San Antonio and spend an afternoon on the Riverwalk with authentic Mexican fare and entertainment.

Why not spend a day at the NASA Space Center in Houston with an actual astronaut who will guide your group through the tour and sit down to enjoy a meal while discussing the exploration of space.

Combine two of the great Texas cities for a week of BIG FUN!!

Texas is a HUGE STATE and loves its sporting events in all major cities. So, no matter what places your group chooses, we can find an exciting sports event to attend.

We can even have the famed Dallas Cowboy Cheerleaders show up for your event !!

The Southwest

The American Southwest contains more than its fair share of natural wonders: Grand Canyon, Arches National Park, Bryce Canyon and Carlsbad Caverns National Park, are only a few of the most famous natural attractions that draw people from all over the world.

The region is home to a wonderful and vibrant mix of Anglo, Latino, Hispanic, and American Indian traditions making it one of the more diverse, interesting, and picturesque corners of America with regards to history, landscape and culture. From glamorous spas and golf resorts, to spending the day in the outdoors exploring all the natural wonders, it's no doubt there is something for every one of your VIPs !

Don't miss ancient sites, eroded badlands and volcanic remains in the Land of Enchantment, and cactus-filled Sonoran Desert to the Mogollon Rim, the Colorado River and the deep canyons of the Colorado Plateau, as well as the great places along the famous 'ROUTE 66'

Pacific Northwest

Lush forest, a pristine coastline, awesome seafood, frothy microbrews and music with art galore !!

With gorgeous mountains and spectacular views there is plenty to keep your eyes open, and for the outdoor enthusiast there is certainly enough to keep you busy.

Known for its airline and computer product facilities, some of the largest and most well-known corporations call the Northwest home including Amazon, Starbucks, Lionsgate Studios, Boeing, Microsoft and Intel, just to name a few.

Hop aboard the high-speed ferry from Seattle to Victoria in British Columbia. Enjoy a scenic 2 to 3-hour cruise through Puget Sound as you travel between the USA and Canada.

There are so many outdoor activities, your head will spin as you decide what to put on your agenda next.

California

California, stretches from the Mexican border along the Pacific Ocean for nearly 900 miles. From towering redwood forests in foggy Northern California to perfectly sun-kissed surf beaches in Southern California, this Golden State along the Pacific Ocean.

From the Gold Rush to the “.com” industry, California has survived extreme booms and busts. Exciting Hollywood still makes most of the world’s blockbuster movies, and celebrities are not hard to find. Private studio tours can be arranged.

The wonder about hitting California's highways is that things get more dramatic with every winding mile you detour from the big cities – trees get bigger, picturesque towns cuter and beaches more idyllic. Enjoy scenic oceanfront cliffs on Hwy 1 or take an equally winding jaunt through historic Gold Country. Follow pastoral back roads between vineyards in California's many wine counties (it's not just Napa), or take an overnight stay for a loop drive around amazing Lake Tahoe.

Las Vegas and the surrounding area has it all !!

Las Vegas

Cruise along the glittering Las Vegas Strip, groove all night to live DJ music or while floating in a fabulous pool, indulge in your guiltiest food pleasures at a celebrity-chef restaurant, or try your luck on the gaming tables in the many fabulous casinos!

However, Las Vegas casinos simply can not compete with all the epic adventures that await thrill seekers in the great outdoors. Just a short journey off the Strip you will find yourself right in the heart of an outdoor adventurer's paradise.

Race Baja trucks in the desert or exotic cars on a fast track. Take a day trip to Death Valley by convertible cars or Harley Motorcycles. Visit the Grand Canyon by air or land ~ Tour the Hoover Dam by air, land or water rafting ~ boating on Lake Mead ~ Visit Mount Charleston, Red Rock Canyon, Spring Mountain Ranch or the Valley of Fire.

Whatever it is your groups want to do, everything is POSSIBLE!

Sports

The FIFA World Cup 26, will be hosted by the United States, Canada and Mexico from June 11 to July 19, 2026. This historic tournament will be the first-ever to feature 48 nations, expanding from 32 teams in previous tournaments. The tournament's 104 matches will be played across 16 host cities in the three North American countries!

Atlanta, Boston, Dallas, Houston, Kansas City, Los Angeles, Miami, New York, Philadelphia, San Francisco Bay Area, and Seattle.

WE LOOK FORWARD TO HEARING FROM YOU!
